Eligibility and Jury Process

The Jury process is open to all fine artists, 18 and older who produce original, visual works of art. A panel of professional jurors from the (The Maple Grove Arts Center www.maplegroveartscenter.org) will judge your submitted examples based on creativity, design quality, technical artistic skill and presentation.

Artwork must be in one of 14 categories (see Application form) and must have been completed within the last three years. Each artist who wishes to display and sell artwork must be individually juried and pay the jury and exhibition fee. Artwork examples must represent what is actually sold. Non-juried work will be removed.

Submit on CD, four (4) jpg, eps or pdf examples of your work. Or, you can email Lorrie Link photos of your work: LLink@maplegroveartscenter.org. For each file, write a description of all artwork shown and its selling price. Painting submissions must list mediums used for each piece. Jewelry submissions must list whether pieces are handmade or assembled from purchased items. Hand-made items are preferred for this fine art fair. CDs will not be returned. The Maple Grove Community Organization and panel of judges reserve the right to accept or reject any application.

The $25.00 Jury Fee is non-refundable.

The deadline for signed application, photos and checks is April 1, 2012. Notifications to artists will be on or before April 30, 2012 via email.

Maple Grove Days Art Fair Information

- Outdoors display spaces are 10'x10'. Artists are required to furnish a white (or light color) fire-retardant tent with canopy, sides and pole weights (the venue is on paved streets). Cement, metal or authorized weights should be used unless approved by the committee. Remove dangerous items such as compressed air, hydrogen tanks etc. Saturday shut down. The tent and all artwork should be exhibited within the display area. Please review ART FAIR Information details.
- The ART FAIR will take place regardless of the weather, unless extraordinary conditions prevail as determined by the Maple Grove Police, EOC, MGCO and the Maple Grove Days Art Fair Committee. All artists should provide 2 telephone numbers and must report to the arts center for information about weather or status of the art fair setup.
- Artists or Artist's representative must remain in their exhibit area during all open hours, both days of the ART FAIR. When available, ART FAIR volunteers may be used for short periods. No smoking or alcohol allowed in the booths.
- Artists will retain all proceeds for the sale of their art and are responsible for collecting and reporting appropriate taxes. Artist's valid Minnesota State Tax ID number must be included on application and displayed clearly at their tent.
- The exhibit fee is $185.00 for a 10'x10' space. This fee is refundable if not selected by the panel of jurors. Jury fee of $25 is not refundable. The Booth fee is not refundable if accepted. A $50 late fee will be issued after April 1 for late applicants.
- Artist's additional considerations included: hospitality area, parking close to exhibit area and eligibility for ART FAIR awards.
